

Local Matters.

Sunday Morning, November 20, 1859.
The Thankful Mr. M. Basile, of the Athenaeum, composed, like many others, a few lines of verse, which were published in the "Daily Appeal."

25th Rev. Dr. Schenck, from Nashville, of Methodist Episcopal Church, South, present in Memphis, presented his services in a short Presbyterian church, this morning, at 10 o'clock.

The Overland Mail.—The overland mail travellers, who have been here since the beginning of October, have been sent back to Fremont, the latest news from San Francesco.—Thanksgiving Day.—Turkeys and dresses are to be had at 25th Dr. J. A. Jones, 100 Madison Street, and 100 Main Street, also, various stores.

New Moon.—We are indebted to R. A. Brundage, for a beautiful one, which will be visible to-night, at 8 o'clock, and will continue to be visible until the 25th.

25th The Rev. Mr. Roach, Universalist, will preach in Old Fellow's Hall, at 10 o'clock this morning, on the subject of "The Reformation," and its results in the redemption of the world.

The Interrogation.—There are 17 present and 22 absent, and the result of the vote is, that the proposed changes in the constitution are to be accepted by the legislature, now, and are attached in the table, and 1000 copies made.

Reverend Norton.—The Right Rev. John Norton, Bishop of New York, has arrived, this morning, at 11 o'clock, on the vessel of Adams, and is at St. Paul's Church in the evening, where he is to speak on the subject of "The Reformation."

A Child with Two Heads.—A most childlike and interesting story, which we have received from a friend, who is working in the vineyards of Nauvoo, Illinois. The adventurous child, it is said, was born to the parents of the Rev. Joseph Smith, Jr., and is the son of the prophet's wife, Helen, and the son of his first wife, Emma Hale, who was a widow when she married him.
